

Graduate Research Symposium

Explore the important work being done by Graduate Students at the University of West Georgia.

Home

Program of Presentors

Lightning Talks

Subject Librarian

Jean Cook

Email Me

Schedule An Appointment With a UWG Librarian

Contact:

Library, Office 320

jcook@westga.edu

678-839-6356

Subjects:

Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Education, Geosciences

Graduate Research Symposium Details

Ingram Library and the University of West Georgia Graduate School are proud to sponsor the

UWG Graduate Research Symposium

Thursday November 7, 2024

6-8PM

Zoom Meeting Link will go live at 5:30PM on November 7

The Graduate School and Ingram Library are delighted to host the inaugural Graduate Student Symposium. The symposium will be a two-hour online event Thursday November 7 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm Eastern. Graduate students from programs across UWG will present 10 minute lightning presentations about their recent research projects.

View the full program!

6:00PM	Caitlyn Barton, Master of Science in Biology 	Nitrogen Fixation Potentials of Three Native Legume Species Advisor: Dr. Joseph Hendricks
6:20PM	Riley Smith, Master of Arts Sociology 	Gender and Rank Dynamics in the United States Marine Corps Advisor: Dr. Emily McKendry-Smith
6:40PM	Rebecca Free, Ed.D. in Higher Education Administration 	Institutional Characteristics Predict Modality Enrollment at Select Community College Advisors: Dr. Reena Viswanath & Dr. Tommy Jackson
7:00PM	Blessing Ameh, Master of Science in Applied Business Analytics, Data Intelligence 	Building Resilient Supply Chains: Navigating Disruptions and Ensuring Sustainability Through Integrated Strategies and Technological Innovations Advisor: Dr. Hope Udombon
7:20PM	Emmie Cass, Ed.D. in Higher Education Administration 	Inequalities in Collegiate Athletics: Current Female Student-Athletes Perspective Advisor: Dr. Su Jara-Pazmino
7:40PM	Sydney Edgar, Master of Science in Biology 	Seasonal Effects on Ringneck Snake Reproductive Cycles Advisor: Dr. Frank Fontanella